

Deep satisfying rings of "O"
Curves and contours
Like the outline of your eyelid
Deep and rooted
Primal being
Skin like chocolate
Eyes deep golden brown pools of
Love and experience and knowledge
Depth of caring
Boundless
Eternal sunshine soul-shine
Of body and spirit

River of thought like you want to
Put it in words so it feels true
Write lines break tides rip thighs
 Write black type of white print
 Snort white lines on glass tint
Break free of the mundane
Let your soul spirit free
Take time to contemplate, enjoy the silence

Let the waves wash crash splash
Feel eons of energy stored in the Droplets
Never gonna stop time
Take it while you have it
Spend it with the ones you love
Time itself will grab it
